

DAWES SCORES KUKLUX KLAN IN HIS SPEECH

"Opposed to Welfare Civilized Communities."

MEANS FINAL RUIN

Associated Press
AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 23.—Attacking the Ku Klux Klan as "opposed to the welfare of all civilized communities," Charles G. Dawes, Republican vice-presidential nominee, in an address here today declared the organization stimulated lawlessness and presaged the disintegration of civilization into sav-agery.

"The Klan in many localities and among many people represents only the instinctive grouping for leadership in the interest of law enforcement which is not found in many cowardly politicians and office holders but it is not the right way to forward law enforcement," Dawes said.

The candidate recounted the effects of Klan activity in Oklahoma where order was finally restored through processes of construction and law. In attempts of the Klan to restore order at Her-rins, after the mine massacre, civil war was narrowly averted, he asserted.

COOLIDGE A HARD- BOILED ECONOMIST

Kansas Farmers Approve of President Administration, Says Senator Capper.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Kansas farmers speak of President Coolidge as a hard-boiled economist in government expenditures, which accounts for his popularity in his state," said Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, when he visited Republican National Committee headquarters on the occasion of the Dawes notification exercises.

"Nothing so strongly appeals to our people as rigid economy and hard commonsense in the management of governmental affairs," said the Kansas Senator. "We are satisfied with Coolidge; we believe he is safe and sane, and we know this is no time to make a change in the management of our national affairs. There has been a marked improvement in the sentiment of our people during the past 60 days, due to careful consideration of the situation and the increases in prices of farm products, accompanied by excellent crop prospects, which made for the full dinner pail of the working man."

"Common sense and rigid economy," said Senator Capper, "appeal more strongly to our people than government ownership of railroads or attacks upon the protective tariff system, or the untied and revolutionary policies which strike at the foundations of our government.
Our farmers believe in 'Cal, the hard-boiled economist,' and in the Dawes plan for bringing real peace to the world. This means prosperity under Republican rule.
Our farmers know it, and the working men in our industrial centers know that this truly insures their prosperity."

Paving on Exeter Is Now Nearly Finished

Middlesboro people are gratified to note the progress of the street improvements on Exeter avenue.
The asphalt surface, beginning at Twenty-seventh street, had proceeded as far as Twenty-third street this morning and indications were that it would be about completed.

A nice short section of street that has been completed recently in that on Eighteenth street, extending from Cumberland avenue along the Middleboro Motor company, the Cherry-Cola plant and the Service Garage. This section, constructed entirely of concrete, will be opened for traffic when it has hardened sufficiently.

School Houses Are Moved On Cars to Camp

Associated Press
EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 23.—Miss Althea Stoneman, a summer student at the University of Oregon here, is a school nurse. The school houses in her district are in motion from logging camp to logging camp in the pine forests about Bend, in central Oregon. When the timber in the radius of a camp is cut and the fathers of the children go on to a new site, the school houses are hoisted on flat cars and taken along. Moving day for the schools usually is on Saturday or Sunday, regardless of when the rest of the camp fits.

Miss Stoneman said the hundreds of children under her medical supervision were cleanly, although water was scarce on some locations.

SUIT IS SOUGHT AGAINST AUDITOR

State Seeks to Recover Expense Money Shanks Spent On Convention Trip.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 23.—
The shelling fund today authorized Attorney General Laughery to bring suit against State Auditor Shanks for the recovery of $250.01, the amount of expense incurred in the trip to the auditor's convention at Salt Lake City which amount was paid to him by the state. Motion was made by Shanks himself as the outgrowth of the trip here, Mrs. Cromwell, secretary of state, and Edward Dismann, state treasurer, took to attend the convention of state officials.

CIVIC COPS PUT ON SOFT PEDAL

Cincinnati Advertising Town to Tourists by Nice Traffic Cops.

Associated Press
CINCINNATI, Aug. 23.—Harsh adjectives which many traffic police use on tourists have been officially replaced in Cincinnati by courtesy. The city's traffic policemen have become polite salesmen,
"selling the city" to strangers.

Each guardian of a Cincinnati street corner has been given a letter from William Tudor, Safety director, which stresses the point that courtesy is something that costs nothing. He urges traffic officers to be prepared to give a soft word of caution to the motorist who has unintentionally violated a traffic ordinance. He points out that slight violations of traffic laws are often caused by a mind obsessed with cares collected during a day's activity, and adds: "The average driver will appreciate the situation."

To care for the driver who does not accept suggestions of the traffic policeman in good faith, Safety Director Tudor says: "By no means do I want traffic men to stand for abuse. If a driver becomes hard or defiant, argument accomplishes nothing. A citation will settle the incident and the court will settle the dispute."

Tourists and automobile visitors, or auto transients should find the welcome sign hung on every policeman, Safety Director Tudor says. A stranger should be given every consideration for "a stranger within our gates always remembers kind treatment and never forgets rough treatment. With a little consideration on our part the stranger will sing the praises of our city to the others in his own community or wherever he may go," the letter concludes.

Boston Voice Spe- cialist Locates Here

Miss Rhea Venner, voice specialist, has opened a studio here for high grade instruction in vocal music. Miss Venner, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, comes here highly recommended as an artist teacher. The public will have an opportunity to hear her at the Kings Methodist church tomorrow morning and at the First Baptist church tomorrow night.

DRY LEADERS ASK SUPPORT OF FAIR SEX

Women Urged to Support Prohibition In Election.

MONEY IS NEEDED

Herman Farris, Missouri, Heads Dry Ticket—Woman Candidate for Vice-President.

Associated Press
KANSAS CITY, Aug. 23.—Plans for a nationwide campaign on behalf of his candidacy for President on the National Prohibition ticket are seriously hampered by a lack of funds, Herman Farris of Clinton, Mo., has declared here. "We'll never have to worry about being investigated for having a slush fund," he chuckled, "for we haven't got one. If we had one dollar for every hundred the big parties have we'd win this election."

Mr. Farris, a 65-year old banker, and Sunday School superintendent, believes in the cause of Prohibition and in the ultimate success of the Prohibition party.

Radio is going to play a prominent part in this year's presidential campaign, Mr. Farris said, and he hopes to utilize its possibilities frequently in his own campaign. By way of firing the opening gun in his battle for a Prohibition victory he radiocast an address from a large station here.

Mr. Farris is at the service of his party and is ready to speak any time, anywhere, he said. The actual plans for his campaign are in charge of Dr. B. E. Pugh, national chairman, at Harrisburg, Pa.
Central branch headquarters of the party is in Chicago in charge of John P. Coffin of Johnstown, Pa.
Western headquarters in Los Angeles is in charge of John C. Bell, vice chairman of the national committee.

"One thing is certain," Mr. Farris said. "We've been electing the issues for 50 years and the other fellows have electing the officers. It ought to be our turn to elect the officers."

"If we can get only one-half of the good people in both old parties, who are sick and tired of the proven corruption which has be-smeared both major parties to tell Uncle Sam at the ballot box their real hearts' desires, we'll be elected by a tremendous majority."

"If the good women will recognize the fact that it was through our party they gained their suffrage rights and will pay their debt to the old party that ever did faithfully stand for them, we'll be elected without the need of a single 'male-man' vote."

Mayor-Editor Runs "Colyum" in Paper

PIERRE, S. D., Aug. 23.—In an era of newspapering which abounds in "colyum" and column-conducting, John E. Hille, publisher of The Pierre (S. D.) Capital-Journal and Mayor of Pierre, is the conductor of a column which is believed to be unlike any other in an American newspaper.

The feature is called "The Mayoror's Column," and the publisher devotes the space "to the information of the public as to city operations, and as a bulwark for imparting official news." Written in a breezy, conversational style, it expresses the mayor's ideals for the city, his views on municipal reforms or undertakings, and a summary of achievements, with, now and then a sharp suggestion about some homely phase of citizenship or municipal conduct.

Father Rev. Reeves Dies at Richmond

The Rev. A. B. Reeves, pastor of the First Christian church, has received announcement of the death of his father, J. P. Reeves, at the latter's home, at Richmond, at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
The deceased was 83 years old.
The Rev. and Mrs. Reeves left for Richmond this morning.

Feeds, Clothes Family of Seven on $13 Per Week

LONDON, Aug. 23.—It isn't always easy for the American workingman to make ends meet.
But the lot of the British laborer is far harder still.
Take Alfred E. Mummery, for instance. He is feeding, housing and clothing himself, his wife and five children on $13 a week.
And there are thousands even less fortunate than he.
For Mummery, employed by the street cleaning department of the Borough of Southwark, which is a part of big London, gets more rather than less than the ordinary unskilled worker. He's just an average British workman.

On the job for 25 years, he probably will stay at it as long as he can work. It is the one thing he knows how to do. And it is a safe job. Which is something to consider in these days of unemployment in Great Britain.

But to get back to his living problem in after-the-war expensive England.

Mummery lives in the Walworth district. His home is on the top floor of a tenement building.

There are three rooms—two bedrooms and a room the family use as a kitchen, dining room and sitting room. It is in the latter his children study their lessons every night after supper.

"We rented the flat before the war," Mummery explains. "We are lucky to have it."

"Under the law, the landlord cannot put us out, so long as we pay the rent, and he can't get over 20 per cent more than we paid before the war."

"Most landlords nowadays, when they get an unfurnished flat vacated, put a few things in it, call it furnished, and ask about any pique they want. And they can put you out almost any time they wish."

"Our landlord installed in our flat a coal stove and also a gas stove with a penny-in-the-slot connection for our gas supply. We pay him nearly $3 a week."

"In case I get sick, the borough will pay half my wages for six months. If anybody in my family takes ill, we get doctors and medicine under the national health act.
If we need dentists we get them free through the London County Council."

"The nine shillings (less than $2) that I keep for myself, I use partly in keeping up my dues in clubs that pay benefits in case of illness or death."

"Now I suppose you wonder what we eat. Well, here's about the way it runs:

"Breakfast—Tea, bread and oleomargarine.

Noon Dinner—Meat, greens or cabbage, potatoes, tea.

"Five O'clock Tea—Bread, oleomargarine, tea.

"Eight O'clock Supper—Bread, cheese, tea.

"My wife uses three or four pounds of tea a week costing one shilling and four pence (30 cents) a pound. We have about eight or nine pounds of sugar a week at 7 12 pence (about 15 cents) a pound.

"When we have meat it is bacon, or mutton or sometimes beef at one shilling and four pence a pound.
We get greens at a penny halfpenny (approximately three cents) a pound.

"Potatoes don't cost us much.
We get three pounds for tuppence (about four cents). We need about five loaves of bread a day. They are small loaves costing 4 1-2 pence (about nine cents) each and our oleomargarine—running about three or four pounds—costs us six pence (about 12 cents) a pound."

Clothing and shoes for himself and his family, however, form Mummery's big problem. He tries to meet it by paying some of his spending money into hoot and clothing clubs. That costs him about 12 cents a week.

"When he has paid in a certain amount, he is entitled to boots or clothing equal to that amount."

Church Fetes Their Amusement.
"But we make ours last a long time," he says. "I always can buy leather fairly cheap, and I repair the shoes of the family. And my wife, it might be said at patching up the clothes."

Mummery, unlike many British workmen, doesn't spend his spare time at the "pubs," public houses or saloons. He neither drinks or smokes. And he doesn't go to the movies.

"There are some," he declares,
"who spend their money at the "pubs" and on shows at the cinemas (movie houses)—money they really need for their families. Recently some of the poor kids often go to bed without supper."

"Mine never have. The miners and I see to it that they get plenty to eat."

Mummery is religious. He is a regular churchgoer. And he and his brood look to the church festivals for all their amusement.

"We go to the concerts and the services at the Browning Settlement, which is near where we live.
These entertainments don't cost anything, and they are pleasant."

"They often have lemonade and cake, and the cost is so small that nobody can afford it if he has a regular job."

That, in brief, is how a man is supporting himself, his wife and five children on $13 a week.

PEER ATTACK AROUSSES IRE LADY VOTERS

Says the House Would Lose Dignity Admitting Women

SAY "UNGALLANT"

Women Resent Lord Banbury's Contention That They Are Not the Equal of Men.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Lord Ban-bury, who as Sir Frederick Ban-bury, was among the most consistent diehards who ever sat in the House of Commons, has lost none of his conservatism since he shifted to the House of Lords.

His Lordship stirred up a hornet's nest by declaring, in opposition to Lord Astor's bill to permit peersesses in their own right to sit in the House of Lords, that the contemplated action would lower the dignity of the upper chamber.
The right which the bill would confer would affect only about a dozen peersesses, but it has always elicited strenuous opposition because of its supposed revolutionary tendencies.

Did their lordships propose, Lord Banbury asked, that the body which for centuries had been a model of a parliamentary house should "lose dignity in order to secure efficiency by admitting women?"

But what has made women of England—in politics and out of politics—mad as March hares was Lord Banbury's contention that women made an unfair exercise of the privilege of sex in their participation in politics.

"Where are we going to stop if we begin this way?" queried Lord Banbury. "Men and women are different and you cannot prevent a woman from exercising in Parliament the privilege of her sex which she had been accustomed to exercise. Women exercise their franchise willingly, and men could treat them as equals in Parliament."

"All nonsense," said Dorothy Jackson, Labor Member of Parliament from Norwich. "Lord Ban-bury has opposed all progressive measures all his life."

"The noble Lord's speech is most ungallant and had it come from any one else it might have been taken seriously," said Lady Terring-ton, another woman M. P.

"There has been no loss of dignity since women came into the House of Commons," said Mrs.
Wintringham, another woman M.
P.

Lady Astor declined to make any comment on Lord Banbury's outburst. When he was in the House of Commons Lord Banbury measured virtually every reform measure which Lady Astor put forward and the parliamentary tiff between the venerable die-hard and the vivacious American woman enlivened many sessions of the House of Commons. But they are the best of friends outside of politics, and Lady Astor asked to be excused from engaging in a controversy with an old friend.

THREE KILLED IN RUN FOR BURGLAR

Police Chief, Son, Another Man of Marquette, Mich., Victims of Encounter.

Associated Press
MARQUETTE, Mich., Aug. 23.— Chief of Police Martin Ford, In-trolman Thomas Thornton and an unidentified man said to have been a paroled convict were killed and the chief's son, Lloyd, was seriously wounded in a running gun fight today when the patrolman found a burglar attempting to break into a store.

2 MEN, BABY, ARE DROWNED IN AUTO

Car Turns Off Road, Runs Into Creek Near Covington—Three Escaped.

Associated Press
COVINGTON, Aug. 23.—Harry Irwin, 32, and Leonard Turner, 45, both of Andersonville, Ky., and fourteen months old William Gregg of Cincinnati, were drowned when an automobile in which they were riding left the roadway and overturned in a creek near here last night. The baby's mother, Frank Barton and another occupant escaped.

Swiss Glaciers Now Receding In Motion

Associated Press
BERNE, Aug. 23.—Scientific observations seem to show that the Swiss glaciers are receding. The advance during the last ten years has come to a stop. From 100 observations taken last year, 55 glaciers were found to be receding and only 25 advancing, whereas in 1916 63 out of 100 were creeping forward.

The last great period of retrogression was between the years 1856 and 1908, but since 1908 the greater part of the glaciers appeared to be going forward until last year, when the new period of withdrawal set in.

Labor M. P.'s Claim Salaries Too Small

Associated Press
LONDON, Aug. 23.—Members of the Labor party who have been elected to Parliament find that the salary of $2,000 yearly is barely sufficient. In fact many of them have to supplement their official income by week-end speaking engagements, lectures, and writing magazine articles.

It is said by several members that one of the most expensive items is that of entertaining visitors from constituencies who call to "see how their member is getting on," and incidentally to have a look around and be entertained on the famous terrace to tea or lunch.

MINERS NOT HURT BY TROLLEY FIRE

Rescuers Rushed to Scene Before Information Safety Was Given.

Associated Press
WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 23.—
One hundred and fifty miners working at the Lincoln coal mines, at Lansing, O., four miles distant, escaped unharmed late yesterday, when an electric trolley wire in the mine fell and short circuited on a rail and set the mine afire. Seven state mine inspectors and two mine rescue trucks were rushed to the scene today before information relative to the safety of the miners was received.

TOURISTS HAVE FUN 2ND CLASS

Americans With Limited Means Find Travel in That Manner Possible.

Associated Press
CORK, Ireland, Aug. 23.—The high cost of railway travel in the British Isles has aroused American tourists of limited means to an investigation of rates throughout Europe, and a general exchange of experiences has begun in hotel lobbies and the offices of tourist agents as to how Americans can economize in their fares without suffering discomfort.

American parties returning from the continent, consisting largely of teachers, students and other persons of limited means, advised that travel is quite satisfactory in the second-class compartments in practically all the European countries this season. Even the third-class compartments may be used without discomfort in the daytime in all the much-frequented countries of Europe except Italy and Spain, where returned travelers found the second-class accommodations were the cheapest that persons accustomed to comfortable living conditions could endure without actual distress.

Since the Great War there has been a noticeable change in the attitude of Europeans toward the various classes of travel. Economists have also effected social changes, and in many European countries only war profiteers are riding first class. A more interesting and better educated class of travelers is found in the second-class and even the third class compartments.

Soldiers Praised In Construction Work

DRAGALEVTSI, Bulgaria, Aug.
23.—Soldiers of the Bulgarian army have been used in building a highway up Mount Vitosha. The work includes fountains and shelters along the road. In addressing the men on the opening of the new route, General Lazaroff, their commander, said:

"Soldiers, you have contributed something of value to your country. By your efforts you have enabled your countrymen to enjoy better one of the beauty spots of Bulgaria. On your return to your homes your fellow villagers will hold you in high esteem as workers of peace, although you wear the uniforms of war. Let your labor serve as a precedent in your volunteer army. The work of that army is a labor of construction instead of destruction."

Chinese Urged to Thrift, Sobriety

Associated Press
TSINGTAO, China, Aug. 23.— Governor Guo En-hung has caused it to be announced that he views with disfavor the custom of giving elaborate and expensive banquets, including such delicacies as shark's fin and bird's nest soup. He suggests any dinner costing more than $5 a plate as needlessly extravagant.

The governor seeks to set the fashion by wearing simple clothing of plain texture, refraining from appearing at public functions in silk and satin gowns. He urges the people to follow his example.

DARROW SAYS BOYS' CRIME WAS AIMLESS

Did Not Even Have a Definite Victim In Mind.

"DISEASED MINDS"

Veteran Legal Warrior Attempting for Forensic Display to Lighten Punishment.

Associated Press
CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Clarence Darrow again matched his eloquence in logic and philosophy in an appeal to Judge Caverly for towards Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb. Before a packed courtroom in stillness so tense it was punctuated by the muffled clicks of the silent typewriters and telegraph instruments, the grizzled veteran of the bar pleaded for the two hated judge talking for mercy for two diseased minds.

Picturing the situation of the youths condemned for a life time in a cell and denouncing the barbarity of hanging in general, and in this case particularly, there was also a fierce denunciation of the testimony given by the state attorneys.

The crime was so aimless the defendants did not even have a definite victim in mind, Darrow exclaimed, and asked the judge to

AMERICANS BUILD TURKEY BUSINESS

Americans Building Agricultural School in Turkey by U.S.
Subscriptions.

Associated Press
SMYRNA, Turkey, August 23.— Americans are doing the only building in Smyrna. While the waterfront and the burned areas leading to the back streets remain in ruins, tragic reminders of the disaster of 1922, the Americans are going ahead with the building of an agricultural school at the International College for which Mrs. John B.
Kennedy of New York, recently gave $10,000. The Turks interpret this as evidence of Yankee confidence in the future of their country.

Smyrna's export business is improving. In the last 12 months it exported 31,000 tons of raisins and 16,000 tons of figs, and the tobacco crop is better this year than it was in 1923. American buyers are taking most of the tobacco crop.

Turkish rug factories are turning out almost the same number of rugs as in prewar days, and have substituted Moslems for Christian weavers.

Mouamer Bey, father-in-law of Mustapha Kemal, has just been re-elected Mayor of Smyrna. He is a wealthy land owner and is popular with the people. Italians of Smyrna a year ago, are leaving in large numbers owing to a growing feeling on the part of the Turks that the Italians have designs on their country. The Italians are going to Syria and to South America. Of Greeks there are only 23 left in the city, and these are awaiting transportation to Greece.

Issue Trade Tickets Creating Interest

"Considerable interest is already being manifested in the proposition of the Merchants' Association whereby two automobiles and other valuable prizes will be distributed among patrons of Middlesboro stores at the close of the Harvest Festival."

Charles D. Haynes, proprietor of the Haynes bakery, received an altitude in this manner two years ago and he is ardently hoping that he will be as fortunate this year.

Patrons are already becoming accustomed to calling for their trade tickets at the shops of the fifty business establishments that have them with each dollar of purchase or similar amount.

THE AWAKENED INTEREST OF WOMEN.

"The women of the United States know that the Republican party is responsible for their having an equal voice in the affairs of the nation." This statement was made by Mrs. A. T. Hert, of Kentucky, vice-chairman of the Republican National Committee, today. Mrs. Hert, a successful business woman, is a living example of the progress that her sex has made in business and in politics. She enjoys the confidence of the men of the business and political world. Mrs. Hert when asked if women art taking an interest in politics this year, said, "Yes, far more so than ever. My branch of the National Committee is daily receiving requests from women asking for copies of the platform and other writing that will enlighten them on the issues of the day. The larger number of these requests, so far, have come from professional and business women. They know that economic conditions affect their salaries and they are thinking of the future. They realize that it is the Republican party that has made it possible for them to have the positions they occupy today, and at higher salaries than they ever before received. The woman in the home," Mrs. Hert remarked, "is showing a most active interest in politics this year." Mrs. Hert is confident that as the campaign progresses this interest will increase by leaps and bounds. In speaking of the part that women are to play in the campaign, the vice-chairman spoke of how the women gave so freely and so generously during the war time of the best that was in them. No task was too arduous; no sacrifice too great. Mrs. Hert states that as soon as all the women of the nation realize that an active participation in politics is the highest form of peace time patriotism, they will redouble their efforts, their work, and their interest because they, then, will realize that the present contest is a struggle to maintain the ideals of our country. That our high standard of living must be continued. They will not vote for that which will cause a chaotic condition, so distressful to humanity and especially to woman-kind, to be put in force; a condition intensely similar to that prevailing in Soviet Russia today.

Mrs. Hert's contention is that women do not yet fully realize what wonderful organizers they are. She points out that every woman in the home is an instinctive organizer. The welfare of the children and the husband depend upon the women creating an atmosphere that is healthful and happy. Women, when they start to organize do the work even better than men. Women's clubs and organizations adhere to organization principles and rules.

Mrs. Hert remarked that the precinct organizer is the one upon whom success depends. She pointed out that there is not a great deal of pleasure attaching to the work of precinct organizers, but those engaged in this line of work are the ones upon whom depends most largely the electoral vote. Mrs. Hert said, "It is easier for a woman to explain a matter to a woman than to a man. Women have more analytical minds than men and women understand the mind better than men do." She stated that women read the literature sent them; they study questions and give more constant and deeper thought to them than it was ever thought to be possible in politics. Upon the matter of women speakers, Mrs. Hert said that it would no doubt, be a matter of great surprise to many to know the number of fine women speakers that have been developed in rural districts. She cited a case in Utah where they have a little school for public speakers. The interested ones come from all over the state. The result has been seventeen outstanding speakers developed in this one school. She said that this was not remarkable, for although women heretofore have always been in the background, the same strain of oratory runs through women as through men. It has been latent but it is there. Mrs. Hert is confident that the women of the nation will rally to the standard of the Republican party because of the principles for which that body stands. It is America that is what it is, it is the reservation of the principles of right and clean living, the welfare of every citizen. That is the spirit which is bringing to the standard of the Republican party thousands of women throughout the land. They realize that glittering generalities and impossible promises do not mean steady work for their husbands or themselves, comfort for their homes, food and clothing for the family. Mrs. Hert believes that the women of the nation have absolute faith in the high character and honesty of Calvin Coolidge. She said that the majority of the women of the country realize that Coolidge is the only president who has ever been the means of giving back to the people 25 percent of their incomes taxes. She believes that the women are thoroughly aroused to the fact that Coolidge stands firmly for a further reduction of taxes, which of course, means just that much lightening the burden of the housewife. Mrs. Hert explained that women must register their strength and give their hearts to the cause. There is nothing complicated or disagreeable in voting women unused to politics need not feel the slightest embarrassment—women all over the land are going to exercise the right of franchise this year.

Mrs. Hert, capable business woman, fine type of American womanhood, is giving all of her time and attention to the cause because she feels it is doing work for the good of the country. She desires no reward, political or otherwise, but she does want to see the women of the nation cast their strength to maintain the high standard of living that this country enjoys. She wants to see that clean, honest American citizen, Calvin Coolidge, elected President of the United States. She wants to see members of her sex contribute to the elimination of theories that any thinking person realizes are not practical. She wants the women of the nation to be the primary cause of keeping the Stars and Stripes flying in majestic splendor over the land of the free and the home of the brave.

FLORIDA PLANS OVERSEAS ROAD

Automobile Road to Extend From Florida Mainland to Key West.

By Associated Press.
KEY WEST, Fla., Aug. 23.—Contracts have been signed and things are shaping themselves for an early beginning on the first units, at both ends, of the long-dreamed-of overseas highway between Key West and the mainland of Florida, a distance of approximately 150 miles.

Contracts signed by the county commissioners of this (Monroe) county call for construction of the roadways and bridges from Stock Island to Saddle Bunches and the causeway and bridge from Key Largo to Dade county.

Approximately 25 miles of the road are provided for under the contracts just signed, about equally divided in distance at the two ends of the line. Stock Island, upon which the city of Key West is located, is about two and one-half miles from Boca Chica and the latter is approximately one mile from Saddle Bunches, which with Sugar Loaf, will make it possible to extend the road for more than 15 miles without further bridging. After leaving Sugar Loaf going eastward another stretch of islands makes it possible to extend the road 30 miles or more with minimum bridging.

The undertaking represents one of the most spectacular pieces of construction in the country, and its completion will match the famous overseas railroad built by the late Henry M. Flagler. The latter road, undertaken down the east coast of Florida about a quarter of a century ago, later was pushed on to this city by throwing up of coral rock from the bottom of the sea upon which to build the roadbed for mile after mile.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

Washington—J. R. McCull declares.

For the past 15 months McCull has been demonstrating his courage by telling cabinet members and departmental bureau chiefs where they "get off" in matters of government expenditure. McCull even has overridden opinions of the Department of Justice in his rulings as to the illegality of certain disbursements, and on one occasion took direct issue with no less an official than the president of the United States, who was basing his views on a report by an assistant attorney general.

Perhaps McCull's bravery is in part due to the fact that, in his job as chief of the general accounting office, which audits the books of Uncle Sam's establishment, he is accountable only to Congress. In his construction of the law regarding appropriations and expenditures, he maintains, neither president nor attorney general can overrule him. They can advise, but they can't boss, he says.

He was chosen by Congress to serve a 15-year term which has about 12 years yet to run. So he is not so susceptible to normal political pressure, such as might be brought to bear even on a congressional appointee who was named only for the usual two or four years.

McCull's latest demonstration of hardihood, however, is one which he may find more difficult to handle than a mere affair with a cabinet member.

He has served notice that married women in Uncle Sam's employ cannot get their pay unless they receipt the payroll under the name they supposedly acquired when they married.

McCull holds that the husband's name is the "legal name" of every married woman. There is no freedom of choice by which the bride may legally retain her maiden name after marriage, he formally

AGRARIAN LEADER PLANS FREEDOM

Exiled Leader Working on Plans to Help Residents in Balkan States.

By Associated Press.
ZAGREB, Jugoslavia, Aug. 23.—During his stay in Moscow Stepan Raditch, the anti-Pashitch leader, has developed more enthusiastically than ever before his program for the normalization of the Balkans.

This Republican-Agrarian program includes the formation of a federated state of free nations in the Balkans. This is to be employed as the basis for the organization of a Balkan-Danubian federation on the same basis. In this way Raditch hopes to remove the grievances of all racial minorities, including those in the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, those in the Rumanian Kingdom and also the Slovaks in the Czechoslovakian republic.

Concerning the Croatian peasantry, Raditch has caused it to be

As a result, McCull has won the enmity of the Lucy Stone League, the membership of which is made of married women who choose to retain their maiden names. President of the league is Ruth Hale of New York, who, if she followed McCull's dictum, would sign herself as "Mrs. Heywood Brown."

"McCull's statement is not true," Miss Hale, or Mrs. Brown, declares flatly, "if he would look into the matter, he would find there are abundant decisions that the name a woman chooses to use is her legal name and that her baptismal name is accepted on contracts. Mr. McCull went off half-cocked."

For they know to do otherwise would be to invite McCull to disapprove the payment and that they'd have to refund the amount.

One intriguing thought intrudes in this case, beyond the views set forth by McCull and the Lucy Stone League.

The case on which the ruling came was that of a nurse at St. Elizabeth's hospital. This is the institution presided over by Dr. W. A. White, who testified to the "mental illness" evidenced by Leopold and Loeb, the Chicago boy murderers, by their complex, psychoses and phantasies.

Might it not be that the insistence of this nurse on using her maiden name was a complex?

Doesn't such stubbornness in the female indicate "mental illness"? Didn't the doctor overlook a chance right at home to apply his expert knowledge of queer mental quirks?

given out here that they must win their liberties, and cannot expect to have self-government offered to them on a silver platter by Nikola Pashitch.

In the absence of Raditch, who has been declared an outlaw by the Pashitch party, the Radical press has abandoned in some measure the consideration which it previously observed toward the person of the king and its attacks upon the throne are becoming menacingly pointed.

The Pashitch cabinet is availing itself of this fact to strengthen its hold upon the sovereign, who is rapidly being placed in the position of adhering to Pashitch through thick and thin as the only method of dealing with the anti-monarchical menace.

Cuyler Pressing Hornsby Closely for Batting Championship of National

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—From a lowly bench warmer, awaiting a chance to slip into the game as a substitute, to one of the brightest stars in the National League, is the remarkable rise of Hazen Cuyler, youthful outfielder, with the Pirates.

Cuyler today finds himself battling the famed Rogers Hornsby, second base star of the Cardinals, for the batting championship of the league. He bagged eleven hits in his last five games, giving him an average of .383 and is trailing twenty-seven points behind Hornsby, who is topping the list with .410. Zack Wheat, the Brooklyn veteran, suffered a slight slump, dropping into third place with .366. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Cuyler, under the coaching of Carey, developed into one of the greatest base stealers in the league. Carey is leading with 39, with Cuyler and Heahroth, of Chicago, tied to second place honors, with 23 each.

Jack Fournier, of the Dodgers, leading home run hitter of the league, is leading in the total of 24, while Frisch, of the Giants, is setting the pace in scoring, having crossed the plate 94 times, six within the last week.

Veterans of the American League are gradually crowding their way toward the top. Following the example of Eddie Collins of the White Sox, Ty Cobb, pilot of the Tigers; Tris Speaker, leader of the Indians and Harry Heilmann, Detroit slugger have worked themselves up among the leading ten.

Maie Ruth, who continues to top the regulars dropped from his .400 mark of a week ago, to .396. However, he still has a comfortable lead. Bib Paulk, of the White Sox, who is in second place with .360. George Sisler, fell out of the 300 class and is way down in the list with an average of .298.

Cobb had made the greatest number of hits in the league, turning in 163 blows.

Eddie Collins, failed to add to his string of 33 stolen bases, but still holds a safe lead over his rivals.

Other leading batters: Jameson, Cleveland, .348; Cobb, Detroit, .345; E. Collins, Chicago, .344; Sheeley, Chicago, .342; Boone, Boston, .342; Speaker, Cleveland, .340; Heilmann, Detroit, .333; Jacobson, St. Louis, .332; Goslin, Washington, .330; Archdeacon, Chicago, .330.

Earl Smith, Minneapolis, outfielder, has accepted the challenge for the batting leadership of the American association. In his last six games, Smith ripped off 15 hits, boosting his average .11 points to .367, which moved him from fourth to second place. He passed both Dessen, of St. Paul, and Bunny Brief, of Kansas City, who, with the leading Neun, of St. Paul, have monopolized the first three places for several weeks.

Neun, who still is setting the pace with .383, suffered a loss of 11 points, but he has equalized in the fact that he has boosted his string of stolen bases to 44, giving him a tremendous lead over his rivals.

The leading home run hitters remain closely matched. Elmer Smith of Louisville, topping the list with 21. Tlien follows Bob Russell, of Columbus, with 19 and Earl Smith, with 17.

Other leading batters: Brief, Kansas City, .363; Dessen, St. Paul, .363; Krueger, Indianapolis, .344; Kirke, Minneapolis, .344; Allen, Indianapolis, .343; Tyson, Louisville, .341; Elmer Smith, Louisville, .340; Murphy, Columbus, .339; Christenbury, Indianapolis, .338; Bell, Milwaukee, .337.

In the Southern association, J. Smith, of Atlanta, continues to lead with an average of .384, followed by Carlisle, of Memphis, with .383. Burrus, of Atlanta, shot ahead of Guyon, of Little Rock, going into third place with .358, while Guyon dropped into fourth place with .352. D. Anderson, of Chattanooga, eighth a week ago, also eased into the picture with an average of .352.

J. Anderson, of Chattanooga, is so far out in front in bagging home runs that he feels certain of capturing the honors for 1924. He has scored 23, an increase of one over a week ago. Stewart, of Birmingham, as a result of stealing five bases, boosted his total up to 48.

Other leading batters: Nicholas, Chattanooga, .344; Hawks, Nashville, .343; Paschal, Atlanta, .342; Yaryan, Memphis, .341; J. Stewart, Birmingham, .337; H. Williams, Mobile, .337; J. Anderson, Chattanooga, .335.

SAYS ROWING IS HEALTHY SPORT

Seattle Coach Denies Old Belief That College Rowing Causes Heart Strain

Associated Press.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 23.—An old belief that college rowing causes heart strain and damages the future health has been attacked by Russell R. Callow, coach of the University of Washington crews that have won the intercollegiate championship at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., the last two years.

"Rowing," Mr. Callow said, "with proper conditioning and training of men, is a great up builder of the human system and will increase a man's life because the sport embraces all those elements that build up the body and keeps it fit."

Dr. Meyer of Columbia University said, after studying the records of 50 years' rowing at Harvard, that oarsmen lived five years longer than any class of men engaged in sport.

"It is my thought that oarsmen live longer than devotees of any other of the so-called violent sports for several reasons. Rowing does not call for the abuse of the body or make it subject to such blows, knocks, bruises and fractures as do boxing, football, wrestling, baseball and other major sports."

"Rowing in the final analysis, does nothing but enlarge the capacity of the lungs, fill them with pure air, build up the abdominal muscles and all the other muscles in the human frame. It gives to its devotees billions of rays of exhilarating, life-preserving sunshine."

An oarman improves as he grows older, said Mr. Callow. "A university oarsman is good at 20, better at 25, and if I could have a crew made up of men around 30 new world's records would be set."

Axes Level Forest; Old Game Preserve

Associated Press

BIALYSTOK, Poland Aug. 23.—The old hunting preserve of Czar Nicholas II has begun to disappear before the woodman's axe. The Polish government has granted a concession to a British company, which will cut the timber and ship it to England.

Prior to the war the forest contained more wild game, including bison, than any other district in Europe. But most of the animals were killed off for food by German soldiers when they were masters in this territory.

The Czar's old hunting lodge in the midst of the forest is now occupied by representatives of the British company. The forest became state property after the war, when Poland became a republic.

Thoughts Of A New House—

"Well, I'm ready to be moved into. Wonder what sort of a family I'll draw. I hope there'll be children—they always brighten a house up."

"Hello! Look at all the people in front of me—my owner is bringing them in. I'll—they seem right pleased with me. I'm a pretty good-looking house, even if I do say it myself."

"More people coming in! What brought all the crowd, I wonder? I'm only a one-family house, after all."

"At least four of these men have taken my owner aside and offered to buy me. You'd be surprised how valuable I am."

"What do you think? I'm sold! To that nice-looking man in the brown hat, who's been admiring me so much."

"Now I understand all this performance! I just heard my old owner say he had advertised me in the Real Estate columns of the Middlesboro Daily News. That's the reason all this crowd gathered, and I was sold so suddenly."

"I might have known that!"

BACON, FISH FRIES COMING IN STYLE

Ante-Bellum Entertainment Features Stage "Come-Back" Over Kentucky.

Associated Press.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 23.—Bacon fries, pie suppers and burritos, popular in the days long before the Civil War, again are coming into their own. Enjoyed in the ante-bellum days as social gatherings, primarily, they now are being used as a means of raising funds for church work and charitable purposes. The "country weeklies" and small town papers of today are speckled with announcements of these events.

Chicken suppers, fish fries and the like became old-fashioned in the late seventies and the eighties, according to William E. Bailey, curator of the Kentucky State Historical Society.

They were the scene of the launching of political careers of many famous Kentucky statesmen, Mr. Bailey said. The campaign of John J. Breckinridge for the Democratic nomination for Congress, the first important office he ever sought, Mr. Bailey said was launched at a burgoon on the Warren Wilcox farm in Woodford county. With the almost solid vote of "Sweet Owen" county, Mr. Breckinridge defeated a Whig in the Whig's own "stamping ground," the Ashland district, and successively became senator, vice-president of the United States and one of three democratic candidates for president in opposition to Abraham Lincoln.

Joe C. S. Blackburn, United States senator and Governor of Panama, was another prominent Kentuckian who made his political debut at a burgoon feast.

U. S. A. and Diana. Castlewood Dahlia Farm, Louisville.

Billionaire, Mrs. King, Pennington Gap, Va. The flower of Billionaire was grown and exhibited by Mrs. McCay. This bloom was absolutely perfect and was a wonderful blossom of the famous Billionaire.

Others have promised to bring blossoms and this exhibit will continue through the remainder of the dahlia season.

AMUSEMENTS

Sousa and Famous Band is Coming to Middlesboro Soon

Lieut. Com. John Philip Sousa and his famous band will tour again this season for more than twenty weeks in a journey which began in Wilmington, Delaware, on June 21, and which ends with two concerts in Greater New York, on November 16. This is the thirty-second consecutive season that Sousa has appeared at the head of his band, and during this tour he will celebrate his seventieth birthday.

Middlesboro will have the extreme good fortune of being included in Sousa's tour this season, a good fortune which is rarely afforded cities the size of Middlesboro.

Sousa's Band deserves to be classed as the most thoroughly American institution of music. The Sousa organization is the only instrumental musical aggregation, either band or orchestra, which has been able to maintain itself without subsidy. An average of two millions of people a year for the past thirty-one years have kept Sousa's Band before the public because Sousa has created programs which have interested and entertained the public. The public has been generous to Sousa and he has responded by bringing to it the world's best music.

The Sousa programs this season will be more varied than ever before. Always they have contained the two elements of substance and novelty. This year the musical range from the Strauss tone-poem "Don Juan" to a characteristic Sousa interpretation of the latest symphony. In between the two extremes are a Sousa suite, a new Sousa march, a Sousa foxtrot (the first foxtrot he has written) and the annual Sousa humoresque.

Sousa's Band this season, as for several years past, will consist of more than 100 musicians and soloists. The soloists this year, for the most part, favorites of other seasons, will include Marjorie Moody and Nora Fenchland, soprano; Winifred Bambrick, harpist; John Dolan, cornetist; George Carey, xylophonist, and John Carr, clarinetist.

BARRYMORE STAR "BEAU BRUMMEL"

Role of Dandy Well Suited to Personality of Popular Actor.

One of the greatest announcements yet made to film patrons of this city is the engagement of "Beau Brummel" at the Manning Theatre Thursday, August 28.

What gives curiosity and expectation a spur is the fact that John Barrymore, America's greatest dramatic actor, has the starring part, and that the screen version is from the Clyde Fitch play, immortalized by Richard Mansfield. Barrymore is always Barrymore which means that he can be depended on to give his audience an unflinching dramatic entertainment. But Barrymore in the adaptation of a play that is one of the best in this country means something spectacular.

As "Beau Brummel," the prince of dandies and intimate friend of the Prince of Wales, Barrymore has a role exactly suited to his personality. Impersonating the most vivid personality that ever strode through the social history of England, he gives an unforgettable performance.

his performance.

The three angles underlying the theme of "Beau Brummel" are the fickleness of fortune, the test of friendship, and the instability of popularity. Because of his intimacy with the Prince of Wales, Beau Brummel is able to influence his creditors and make himself the arbiter of English society. Women flock to his rooms in the vain effort to pick up the fragments of a heart hiding its ache behind the fripperies of clothes. At the height of his popularity, his salient wit makes an unflattering remark which precipitates him into a deluge of misfortune.

The brilliant supporting cast consists of Mary Astor, Willard Louis, Irene Rich, Alec B. Francis, Carmel Myers and others. The direction is by Harry Beaumont, the adaptation by Dorothy Farnham. It is a Warner Brother's classic of the screen.

Passion Play Christ Scored by Townsmen

Associated Press.

MINNICH, Aug. 23.—Anton Lang, the famous Christ actor of Oberammergau, and his companions on the recent visit of these village players to the United States, have not been given a very warm welcome by their town-folk.

There is criticism of the small amount of money brought back as the result of the trip, arranged originally to raise funds for the needy ones of the community and the proposal that any of the money be used to erect a monument commemorating the visit has been assailed, according to a dispatch to the Weser Zeitung.

Lang's enemies charge that he permitted himself to be duped while in the United States.

Miss Grace Wallace, of Harrogate, was in Middlesboro today.

Miss Anna Miller Peyton, of Shawnee, and her guest, Miss Edie Walton, of Richmond, spent the day here with Miss Mary Byrd Givens.

German Women Vote Like Their Mates

NUREMBERG, Germany, Aug. 23.—German women vote exactly as their men-folks do, is the result of statistical investigations of the last Reichstag's vote in the Nuremberg electoral district.

When 34.9 per cent of the constituency voted for the Social ticket, the percentage of women casting their vote for that party was 33.8 per cent. If 6 per cent of men went with the Stressemann party, there were exactly 4 per cent of females doing the same.

The Frost Will Surely Come AND WITH IT

Plenty of feed to buy and of course higher prices. We have seldom seen such grain prices and that in the Summer time. What will happen when the grass is gone? Do some thinking now.

THEN GET THIS

We believe that feed will be higher. We have booked fifteen cars and must move them between now and December 1st. Incidentally, we will save someone some money while we are moving them. Here's the idea: We will book any customer from one to one thousand bags of Cow Feed, or any Feed and give him until December 1st to take it out, and guarantee the price against decline. That gives you both ends of the string. Call us now and book your winter wants. We carry the feed in stock for you. Simple, but saving.
